

ACCOUNTING EDUCATION SIG5 SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM
Accounting Education Post-Neoliberalism
Hilton Adelaide, Victoria Room, Adelaide, Australia
8.00 – 8.30	Tea and Coffee
8.30 – 8.40	Welcome AFAANZ Ed Sig Organising Committee
	SESSION ONE – Chairperson Nick McGuigan
8.40 – 10.40	Futuring Accounting and its affect on Accounting Education	Clare Cooper and Will Scott-Kemis	FICTIONS – Future-based design duo, Sydney
10.40 – 11.00	Morning Tea
	SESSION TWO – Chairperson Dianne McGrath
11.00 – 11.20	Adaptive accounting lessons and their use in introductory accounting	Dr. David Bond	University of Technology Sydney
11.20 – 11.40	Developing and assessing communication skills in classes with large international cohorts	Professor Marie Kavanagh, Associate Professor Jac Birt, Dr. Paul Newbury	University of Southern Queensland
11.40 – 12.00	Understanding accounting students motivation and self-regulated learning behaviours in a blended learning environment	Lorena Mitrione, Professor Carla Wilkin & Dr Matthew Butler	Monash University
12.00 – 12.50	Lunch

	SESSION THREE – Chairperson Nicola Beatson
12.50 – 1.20	Accounting for time: building a values-led society	Kristian Martinow	Chief Timekeeper and Social Entrepreneur at The Timekeeper
1.20 – 1.40	The Accountability Institute: A hybrid space exploring informal education	Thomas Kern	Co-Instigator of The Accountability Institute, Melbourne
1.40 – 1.50	CPA Australia Emerging Academic Forum	Mary Clarke	CPA Australia
1.50 – 2.20	Accounting Education Post-Neoliberalism – an Early Career Researcher Perspective	Dr. Lachlan McDonald-Kerr	La Trobe University
2.20 - 2.40	Afternoon Tea
	SESSION FOUR – Chairperson Mary Low
2.40 – 3.00	Exploring the emotional intelligence of a diverse cohort of South African accounting students	Marina Kirstein, Professor Stephen Coetzee & Astrid Schmulian	University of Pretoria, South Africa
3.00 – 3.30	Creative Accountants – Breaking down silos by engaging the artist	Associate Professor Nick McGuigan	Monash University
3.30 – 3.50	Factors influencing international Chinese students’ academic success in an Australian university’s accounting program: An empirical test.	Dr. Helen Yang, Professor Alan Farley & Lee Min	Victoria University
	SESSION FIVE – Chairperson Scott Copeland
3.50 – 4.30	The Great Debate - This just doesn’t add up: There’s no place for accounting in a post neo-liberalistic world...	Scott Copeland & Nicola Beatson	AFAANZ AE SIG
4.30 – 5.30	CA ANZ Sponsored Cinema and Drinks
5.30 – 6.00	AGM		